

6516207951.txt

I urge the FCC and NAB to rethink its position on NAB Petition 04-160. I travel a good deal for work and find it extremely useful to have access to weather and traffic reports for not only major cities but actually need many more. It is about time someone started to offer this service and it would make many peoples life not only harder but more unsafe.